HISTORY

Founded in 1895, Clemens Food Group is a sixth-generation, family-owned, vertically coordinated pork production operation with sister organizations that include feed milling, farming, processing, transportation, and logistics.

As one of the largest pork processing companies in the US, with retail and food service customers such as Costco, US Foods, Sodexo, and Jersey Mike's, Clemens Food Group focuses on supplying the highest quality products to its partners via a responsive and sustainable system, while also providing advanced solutions that simplify our partners' operations.

Established nearly 130 years ago as a family farming venture in Hatfield, PA, Clemens Food Group was founded on the family values of ethics, integrity, and stewardship. In total, Clemens has more than 5,000 team members spanning multiple states including operations in Pennsylvania, Michigan, Indiana, and North Carolina.
